

Call for Papers: Asian Popular Culture & The Asian-American Experience

Proposals are now being accepted for the 2012 Southwest/Texas Popular Culture and American Culture Associations conference, Feb 8 – 11, 2012, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel & Conference Center in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Our conference theme: Celebrating “Foods & Culture(s) in a Global Context” honors the cultures of New Mexico whose celebration of food transcends national boundaries making this a truly international celebration in the Land of Enchantment. For more information, see <http://www.swtxpca.org>.

To submit a proposal to the conference’s subject area on Asian Popular Culture & The Asian-American Experience, visit the conference database site at: <http://conference2012.swtxpca.org/>

Asian Popular Culture & The Asian-American Experience is a topic area that covers a wide variety of material. We have combined Anime/Manga into this larger topic area this year in order to provide an opportunity for greater participation. In fact, if your paper has anything to do with Asian popular culture or Asian-American life and culture, we are definitely interested. If you have any questions, please email area chair Deborah Scally (University of Texas – Dallas) at sensei0918@yahoo.com.
